TUESDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 22, 1859. RELIGIOUS SERVICES IN ENGLAND.

Bishop De Lancy, now on a visit to Europe, says in one of his letters: "I have attended five or six services in England, and am struck with the following

1st. The general and audible responses. 2d. The congregational singing.

3d. The reading of the lessons by the members of the congregation in their Bibles in the pews. The pause after the benediction. 5th. The very little looking round and staring at each other by the congregation, and the apparent devout attention exhibi-

In another letter (Dec. 20th) Bishop DeL. speaks thus of the weekly service held the night before in St. Paul's Cathedral, London: "It was a most impressive service, more than three thousand present, notwithstanding the rain. A choir of more than five hundred volunteer singers chaunted and sung .-The sermon was by the Rev. Dr. Hook-extemporaneous, animated and impressive, and fixed the attention of the great multitude for forty minutes. The voices of the people almost overpowered the immense organ. It $100,000, payable 1st of January, 1871, with inberating the praises of God. It carried me forward to what St. John says: 'A voice voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saving Allelnia! for mighty thunderings, saying Alleluia! for the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth.'

"All about us, so far as we could see or hear, responded and sung, but no individual voice, male or female, could be distinguished in the overpowering and harmonious mass of sound. There were no long preludes or in- County, Va., rendered at the November term, 1858, terludes by the organ.

"When the hymn after the sermon was finished, all bent down and the preacher pronounced the benediction, to which the organ, choir and congregation responded a most solemn and impressive amen; and all was silent as the grave, for private prayer to God for his blessing on the service-a silence overpowering-silence that could be felt .-The immense flock then quietly dispersed.'

A SOUTHERN SIGHT.

Last Sabbath afternoon we went to the basement room of the Presbyterian Church, where we found about twenty ladies and gentlemen engaged in teaching about two hundred and fifty negroes (mostly youth and chil-dren) the catechism, reading and expounding the day of sale, and to be secured by the bonds of the Bible, and learning them the words and the purchaser, with approved security—the title to the property to be retained until the whole of the music of a number of beautiful sacred songs. As we looked upon the interesting spectacle, we wondered if Greely, Giddings or Garrison had ever condescended to meet with the Africans they profess to love so much, and point them to the "Lamb of God which taketh away the sins of the world?" Among other songs, they chanted the following versification of the ten Commandments:

 Thou shalt have no more Gods but me;
 Before no idol bow thy knee; 3. Take not the name of God in vain; 4. Nor dare the Sabbath day profane; 5. Give both thy parents honor due:
6. Take heed that thou no murder do;

Abstain from words and deeds unclean; Nor steal, though thou art poor and mean; Nor make a wilful lie, nor love it; 10. What is thy neighbor's dare not covet. Athens, (Ga.) Banner.

COMPANY, ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA. CAPITAL OVER $250,000, AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING. The Charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others, than any other Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in cash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the in-sured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the combination of THE CASH AND MUTUAL

PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 16th of March, 1854, since which time over five thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over thirty thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having trebled our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering pros-pects of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may be determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Company. DIRECTORS Christopher Neale, R. F. Lester, Sholto T. Stuart. P. D. Lipscomb Silas Bigiow. James T. Close, Edward Sangster, A. R. Blakey.
